

Role Description

POSITION TITLE:	Executive Assistant to the Deputy Director: Stewardship
TEAM LEADER:	Deputy Director: Stewardship of Catholic Education and Executive Assistant to the Executive Director
TEAM:	Executive Director Team
DATE:	November 2022

Organisational Tradition and Context

Diocese of Ballarat Catholic Education Limited (DOBCEL) is a company limited by guarantee, created to govern 58 schools located across Western Victoria. DOBCEL and its administrative arm, Catholic Education Ballarat (CEB) work together to support the leadership of all Catholic Primary and Secondary schools, to promote Catholic identity, to deliver quality learning, provide effective stewardship and nurture respectful and trusting relationships with the community.

The Executive Director of Catholic Education Ballarat acts with a delegation from the Bishop of Ballarat to organise, administer, support and service all matters related to DOBCEL Schools and Catholic Education Ballarat.

Our Vision

As partners in Catholic education and open to God's presence, we pursue fullness of life for all.

Our Mission

We journey towards this vision through:

- proclaiming and witnessing the Good News of Jesus Christ;
- ensuring quality learning that promotes excellence and fosters the authentic human development of all;
- living justly in the world, in relationship with each other and in harmony with God's creation;
- exploring, deepening and expressing our Catholic identity in diverse ways;
- enabling each one of us to reflect more fully in the image of God.

Role Purpose

This role will provide high-quality executive administrative support for the Deputy Director: Stewardship, and work collaboratively with key stakeholders, by handling a variety of complex, confidential and executive administrative tasks and projects. The primary purpose of the role is to enable the Deputy Director: Stewardship to effectively and efficiently lead the Stewardship team.

Key Responsibilities

It is not the intention of this role description to limit the scope or accountabilities of the position but to highlight the most important aspects. The accountabilities described may be periodically altered in accordance with changing organisational needs.

Executive support to the Deputy Director: Stewardship

- demonstrate high quality and consistent professionalism in all aspects of the role, maintaining discretion and confidentiality at all times;
- develop strong relationships with all stakeholders, including the CEB Leadership and visitors to CEB, and collaborate with others to provide effective partnering;
- provide exceptional end-to-end executive administrative support to the Deputy Director: Stewardship, including creation and management of documentation such as correspondence, reports and presentations;
- proactively manage the Deputy Director: Stewardship's diary to optimise effectiveness, including the provision of daily and weekly overviews;
- developing systems with the Deputy Director: Stewardship to ensure priorities are managed;
- co-ordinate meetings, prioritise demands, delegate or redirect enquires, and ensure professional meeting preparation;
- prepare, format and distribute agendas and associated papers for Consultative Committee meetings, Team meetings, and various other meetings, and maintain associated organisational records for meetings;
- screen incoming calls, emails and other communications for any urgent action/response required, and monitor actions to conclusion;
- research, collate and analyse data and other information to prepare reports and documents;
- manage logistics for Consultative Committee meetings, Team meetings and workshops including catering, as required by the Deputy Director: Stewardship;
- process invoices and expenses for the Deputy Director: Stewardship, in compliance with relevant policies and standards;
- other duties as required by the Deputy Director: Stewardship.

Skills, Capabilities and Key Selection Criteria

To be successful in this role the employee needs to have the following skills and capabilities:

- demonstrated ability and experience in offering high level executive support, with a focus on proactively managing the day-to-day demands on the Deputy Director: Stewardship;
- ability to navigate conflicting demands and priorities, multi-tasking effectively to meet deadlines;
- willingness to seek and respond effectively to feedback when provided;
- demonstrated ability to problem-solve and improve systems;
- high standard of flexibility, initiative and ability to remain calm in pressured circumstances.

Essential Requirements

The following are requirements for this position:

- a commitment to work within and align to the DOBCEL Vision and Mission;
- extensive experience in high level administrative and/or executive assistant roles;
- advanced level of computer literacy in the Microsoft Office suite;
- advanced writing and proof-reading skills, with a high level and consistent attention to detail;
- demonstrated ability to operate as both an effective team leader and member;

- current Victorian or National Police Check;
- current Working with Children certification (employment version);
- current Victorian Driver’s Licence.

Responsibilities of all Catholic Education Ballarat Employees
